FIMR (Cuyahoga Infant Mortality Review Program):

216.201.2000 ext. 1534 A free bereavement visit with a counselor. You can also choose to participate in a FIMR interview at that time. The goal of FIMR is to listen to the stories of families that have experienced the tragedy of stillbirth and/or infant loss. Through these stories we can learn what works and what is needed to better help families and improve community resources.

Local Non-Profit Foundations:

◆ The Adonis Foundation. (Cleveland) A bereavement organization started by a local family who lost their stillborn son. Offers assistance to families affected by the loss of a child through miscarriage, stillbirth, and infant loss. Bilingual in Spanish. 216.999.7511 www.theadonisfoundation.org

◆ Emily's Gift of Hope. (Avon) Started by a local family that lost their stillborn daughter and son. Offers a support group, blog, resources, and raises awareness for families that experience loss during pregnancy or infancy. 216.346.8630 www.emilysgiftofhope.org
